A Note from Fr. Mike...

While the reading from the Gospel of Mark and Paul's letter to the Corinthians are about two different things, Jesus' authority and Paul's discipleship, they both help us to grow in our ability to be disciples of Christ. First we must listen. Not simply hear, but listen to what God is teaching us and asking us. We must also remain focused on Christ.

We must make Christ the highest priority in our lives. Christ teaches with authority because he is authentic in his love for God and how to help others encounter and experience that same love. As disciples we too are called to be authentic in how we proclaim and live out the love of Christ in our lives so that others may encounter and experience that same love of God. Peace, Fr. Mike

The Eucharist in the New Testament and the Early Church

In this year of Revival in Eucharistic Spirituality we shall be reflecting on the very roots of our Eucharist, the source and summit of our spiritual life. How did Christians refer to the Eucharist before it had that name? How was the Eucharist celebrated at the very beginning? There is no better way to prepare for Easter than to contemplate the biblical foundation of the Eucharist. Beginning on Zoom February 20th, 2024 at 7:15PM. Please register at FrRob@IHMParish.net

A Message from Faith Formation Pastoral Associate: John McGuire

Out of Order Gifts of the Holy Spirit: Pt. 4 Wisdom
When I hear the word wisdom, I immediately think of King Solomon. We may think back to an account of the king being approached by God in a dream. A question was posed, "what gift do you wish from me Solomon?" Most other worldly rulers may have asked for riches and fame, but Solomon requests the wisdom to judge what is important, meaningful, and purposeful to appropriately lead the people entrusted to him.

The discussion might also lead us to a few figures that are overtly or covertly people of faith, Aristotle, Socrates, St. Thomas Aquinas, or even Abraham Lincoln. These people through age, experience, or even supernatural gift could cut through frivolity and even self interest to find the true and beautiful, the path of wisdom.

Have you ever heard the phrase "wise beyond their years". A great example of this statement is Blessed Carlo Acutis. A young man who loved sport, and video games but loved the Lord, specifically in the Eucharist, more than all else. He even created a website about miracles that you can still visit today, MIRACOLI EUCARISTICI - Mostra Internazionale Ideata e Realizzata da Carlo Acutis e Nicola Gori.

You may even have a young person in your life who works to employ this gift in their lives today. So let us all pray for a deeper connection with the gift of wisdom, and the Holy Spirit that grants this gift. God Bless and have a wonderful week!

San Alfonso 2024 Women's Weekend Retreat
March 8-10, 2024
 Theme: The Eucharist and the Hungers of the Human Heart
 This retreat will offer you an opportunity to get in touch with the hungers within your own heart and how an encounter with the living Christ through prayer, scripture, community and most importantly the Eucharist satisfies those hungers. The cost for the weekend retreat is $300 per person. Contact Chris Haight for more information: chrishaight@verizon.net or call the parish office at 908-889-2100 for assistance. You can also register online at www.sanalfonsoretreats.org

The 2024 Annual Appeal has begun! You should have received an invitation in the mail from Cardinal Tobin to consider making a financial sacrifice to support this year's Annual Appeal. We are grateful for your generosity and we rely on it because it helps support essential ministries and programs of our Archdiocese. If we reach this goal in cash by June 30th, our Parish is eligible for a rebate, which comes back to our Parish! Please consider taking a step with us on this Stewardship journey by responding to Cardinal Tobin's invitation to support the Appeal. You can make a gift using the envelopes which will be available on February 3-4. Or you can also make a gift online through our Parish Giving Link on our website or by going directly to www.rcan.org/sharing
