A Note from Fr. Mike...

Jesus calls us to love one another, and by doing so we remain in Him and He in us, and our joy may be complete. When we love someone we want them to be happy and joyful, and not just in a superficial way, and we want to give of ourselves in order to make this happen. Jesus has done the same for us by giving Himself on the cross and He continues to do so through the Eucharist and all of the sacraments and through one another. In experiencing this love and joy in our lives He calls us to share it with one another, and we do so willingly because of our love for Jesus and for our neighbor. In keeping this commandment of love we are able to experience more profoundly the love of Christ for the Father and the Father's love for Christ in our lives. We remain in union, and communion, with him. Participating in the divine love of Father and Son (and Holy Spirit) enables us to share that same divine love with others. Peace, Fr. Mike

Welcome to the inaugural issue of the IHM Pastoral Council Corner!

Here's a brief history: On June 12, 2021, Father Mike introduced the newly reformed Pastoral Council to our parish community. Over the ensuing months, council members undertook several training sessions to develop a comprehensive understanding of their roles and the expectations associated with a pastoral council. This training was tailored specifically to align with the needs and context of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish.

The council's primary role is to support our pastoral ministry by advising our pastor on the congregation's needs and helping to craft a vision and strategy for our community of faith in response to these insights. Our first official meeting took place on August 24, 2021.

Currently: The Pastoral Council convenes on the second Wednesday of each month. Our upcoming meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, May 8th, at 7:00 PM. The council comprises of our Pastor, Father Michael Ward and Father Rob in an advisory capacity. 11 members (typically 12), and two trustees also serving in an advisory capacity—Karen Schurtz and Anthony Carlino—along with staff member John McGuire.

Meet our dedicated core team:

- ★Rick Aiere
- ★Marielle Carroll, Secretary
- ★David Diken
- ★Margaret Lewis
- ★Geraldine Keogh, Chair
- ★Mary Frances Malone
- ★Diane McGuinness
- ★Kathy Mitchell
- ★Charlie Mulrooney
- ★Peter Nizner
- ★Steve Prato

We are profoundly thankful for the dedication, commitment, and expertise that these individuals bring to their roles. Please keep them in your prayers.

In the coming weeks, we'll highlight key achievements of the council to date and share our plans and visions for future projects and initiatives within our parish. Stay tuned!

If you would like to contact the Pastoral Council please send an email to pastoralcouncil@IHMParish.net

A Message from Faith Formation Pastoral Associate: John McGuire

Easter: A Sacramental Season: A man, seemingly crazed, dressed in a way, dined in a way that made others uncomfortable, mainly on locusts and wild honey went out to a deserted place, and called out for repentance along the Jordan River. As odd as he seemed, the people were hungry for a new perspective, a change in the status quo. With this man John the Baptist they found a form of ritual cleansing, a baptism of repentance.

Though He was like us in all things but sin, our Savior Jesus Christ sought out this voice in the desert, His cousin, to receive this baptism. While Christ was without sin, this was a critical moment (that we'll revisit during our next installment on Confirmation). This ritual cleaning performed by John was a precursor to something greater, just as John himself was the forerunner of Christ. After Jesus' suffering, death, and resurrection he spent time with His Apostles and Disciples, and commissioned them for ministry. They were being sent to go and make disciples Baptizing in the Name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. This baptism was no longer for purely repentance, no those who experience baptism of our Lord receive new life in Christ whether they are infants, or adults. It is interesting to consider how the sacraments interplay with each other throughout their history. We consider Confirmation to be somewhat of a completion of this important rite. Even more interestingly, baptism is in fact for the forgiveness of sins. Earlier in our history, the sacrament of reconciliation hadn't been developed, so some notable figures, emperors, notables, and ordinary people would hold off their baptism till later in life, because they feared sinning after the forgiveness of baptism. Baptism has always been a one shot deal, a dedication of one's life to Christ. As such, even those who leave the faith later in life, are seen by Church law as still being Catholic. This week in particular, let's pray for those who have been baptized and have strayed from the faith, and those who have never known Christ.

God Bless and have a great week! Read more at www.ihmparish.net/book-of-john
