A NOTE FROM FATHER MIKE

Approaching God with humility and reverence is what Jesus encourages us to do in today’s Gospel. When we humble ourselves we are more open to the profound depth of God’s love for us. We are more aware of the tremendous gifts that he has given to us to use to lift up one another. In recognizing the source of these gifts we allow them to flourish far more than we could if left to our own devices.

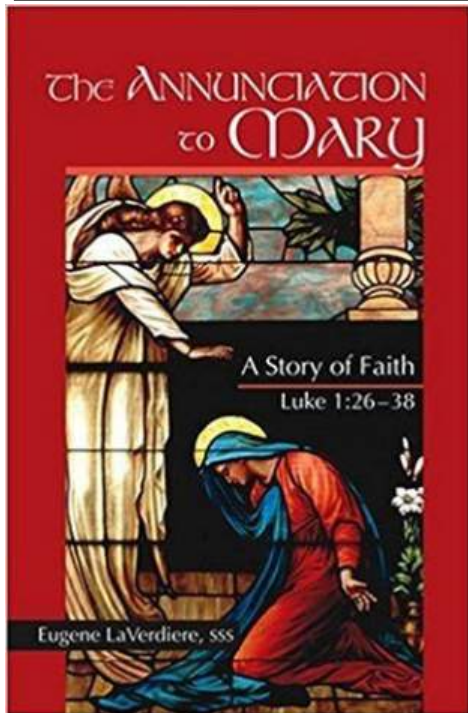

It is in lifting up one another that we can give praise to God from the heart, and it is not a forced praise or begrudging response to the love of Christ, but one that springs from the heart and soul that has recognized just how much God loves us and wants us to experience that love each and every day.

Peace, Fr. Mike

The Annunciation to Mary: A Story of Faith

The prologue of Luke’s Gospel is both simple and profound. As we prepare for Christmas let us take a close look at Mary of the scriptures. At the heart of the book, each chapter examines a particular phase of the Annunciation story through a biblical perspective.

The deep mystery of the Incarnation is revealed in this passage of Luke’s Gospel.

We shall meet on Zoom on Tuesdays from 7:15pm until 8:15pm beginning November 7th, 2023.

Please register at FrRob@ihmparish.net and contact him if you have any questions or would like to obtain a copy of the book.

When We See The Harvest

By: Susan Y Nildienko

A harvest of apples, a harvest of corn;
A harvest of plenty, an autumn adorned.
With bright colored leaves, a fall festive blend;
A wonderful time for families and friends .
A harvest of pumpkins, a harvest of grain;
A harvest of bounty, and cool autumn rains.
A big harvest moon- way up in the sky;
A harvest of blessing that God has supplied.
Be grateful, be humble, give thanks to the Lord;
He has showered His blessing here in our world.
But have we been faithful , and have we been true?
Have we put God first in all that we do?
A harvest that God sees is not food or crop;
Not pumpkins, or grain, not apples that drop.
But God see the harvest of souls needing Him;
A harvest of people who need saved from their sin.
A harvest of souls and a harvest of love;
A harvest of mercy from our Father above.
When we see the harvest, let's see through God's eyes;
And share with the nations the life He supplies.

A Message from Faith Formation Pastoral Associate: John McGuire

When I was Confirmed, we had to select a saint and write a paper on them. I chose John the Baptist, because I was inspired by his outsider status, his wildness, and the fact that he made way for our Lord. I also selected him because documentation was scarce, and I couldn’t be expected to know any important dates, or less spiritual information. When we were Confirmed, the Saints felt like just another box to check, another paper to write.

At our parish, there is a brief form to complete, not a paper, but we ask the young people why this person inspires them. Then this selection process culminates in the Rite of Names, which we intentionally paired with the week of All Souls and All Saints. These people are meant to be an inspiration for us, as we seek to live a life united with Christ. As we hear a Litany of Saints at the 10:00 am Mass we should think about how these holy women and men went before us, and spread the Good News, and how they are present with us in the celebration of the Eucharist. Over the past weeks we’ve been considering the Eucharist as the source and summit of our Catholic faith. Have considered the training needed to make such a great climb. I’ve hinted at the fact that we can serve as guides to friends, family, and neighbors. This is accomplished through invitation and accompaniment.

We are called to be more than spectators of the Mass, after we reach the summit, we are called to also lead others up the mountain. However, to do that, we first need guides and examples. These can be friends and relatives who are members of the Church today, the clergy, and others in our community. However, we can also look to the saints in heaven. At each Mass we unite with the communion of Saints as we worship Jesus in the Sacrifice of the Altar. Then as the saints we are called to lead others in the same direction. This week let’s pray for our Confirmation Candidates, their families, and all the members of our community that we might follow the example of the saints, and find fellowship with them and other members of our community.

God Bless and have a great week.
