A NOTE FROM FATHER MIKE

The reading from the book of Wisdom reminds us peacefully and beautifully to watch for God at sunrise; to keep vigil because Wisdom (the Holy Spirit of God) actually is searching for those who are waiting. God's wisdom "meets them with all solicitude." The Psalm boldly names our craving for God. "My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God," And, stay awake, the Gospel adds, wisely make preparations. Actively seeking out Christ in our lives as he too seeks and invites us helps us to better recognize not only His loving presence but his gifts as well, that we may better engage ourselves as disciples and bring His love onto our world today. As we approach the end of our liturgical year, may we wisely seek the wisdom and will of God at all times so that we may be ready for his coming.

Peace, Fr. Mike

The Annunciation to Mary:
A Story of Faith

The prologue of Luke's Gospel is both simple and profound. As we prepare for Christmas let us take a close look at Mary of the scriptures.

We shall meet on Zoom on Tuesdays from 7:15pm until 8:15pm.

Please register at FrRob@ihmparish.net and contact him if you have any questions or would like to obtain a copy of the book.

Christmas Tree Memorial Lighting
Saturday December 9, 2023 after 5:00 PM Mass

We will celebrate the Christmas season by illuminating the perimeter of our Nativity scene with beautiful six foot fresh cut Christmas trees covered with lights! We are offering the opportunity to dedicate a tree on behalf of a loved one (living or deceased), an organization, or for a personal family Christmas greeting. The trees will be affixed with a plaque containing the names to be memorialized and honored. The cost to reserve a tree is $200. The number of trees are limited so please complete the form (available at church or download the form at www.ihmparish.net) and submit your form and donation to the Nazareth Center office. Thank you!

Coats For Kids

Knights of Columbus

Fr. Nelligan Council 5730, Knights of Columbus, sincerely thanks all who donated to our 2023 Coats for Kids Fundraiser. Thanks to your generosity, our council raised over $11,300, all of which has purchased 527 brand new winter coats for local children in need! Coats have been delivered to 5 organizations: Family Promise (Elizabeth), St. Vincent De Paul Society (N. Plainfield), Plainfield Action Services, Mercy House (Newark), and Refugee Assistance Partners NJ (Scotch Plains). Knights of Columbus are men who live to serve by Christ by serving their neighbor. Check out the Knight's official website at www.kofc.org or contact Ryan Radice (Deputy Grand Knight) at rradice.history@gmail.com. Missed our coat drive? You can still donate to it and any of our council's other charitable causes online. <https://kofc5730.square.site>

"The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were wise. The foolish ones, when taking their lamps, brought no oil with them, but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps..." Matthew 25:1-4

PRAYER FOR VETERANS by Anne Peterson

God, we Pray for our Veterans, For all the jobs they've done,
For all their sacrifices made. You've seen every one.

We Pray that You will Bless our veterans,
And Pray each one will know, You've been their guide,
Both Far and wide, Who's never let them go.

A Message from Faith Formation Pastoral Associate: John McGuire

How many of us think that our sin angers God? When we sin we have to go to confession because God the creator of the universe is angry with us, and if we don't make reparations, this all-mighty being will smite us? Whether we will admit it or not, I think many of us got this impression when we were children in CCD or faith formation. Our sin hurts and angers God, so we have to make things right! What is amazing to me, is how easy it is to believe in this way, and the audacity we have to believe it.

God's love is infinite, to degrees well beyond earthly mother and father. God is not angry or distancing from us, but we put up our own barriers as a response to sin as the result of shame, pride, or embarrassment. Recently I looked back at the story of the Garden of Eden. Specifically at when God banished Adam and Eve, and I had noticed something that had seemed inconsequential in the past. Before banishing Adam and Eve, God remarks: "Then the LORD God said: See! The man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil! Now, what if he also reaches out his hand to take fruit from the tree of life, and eats of it and lives forever?" Genesis 3:22

For context, Adam and Eve begin to know shame, are cursed to toil, and suffer in childbirth as a result of taking the fruit of the tree of knowledge of good and evil. If they were to remain in Eden, and eat of the fruit of the tree of life, they would be subject to debasement for eternity, not just until death, and salvation would be out of reach. This upcoming week the young people of our parish preparing for First Reconciliation will take part in the Potter's retreat where they will get to reflect on the power of Confession. This week let's pray for those children and their families, and begin to reflect on how Confession can better and further our life of prayer and communion. God Bless and have a great week!
